Clean and Innovative Textiles Strategy for Circular Economy

Report on Multiplier event

E5 Fifth Multiplier event

Cre.Thi.Dev.

October 5th, 2022

Short Report

The event was filled with speeches of several stakeholders, covering the furnishing, circular economy & sustainability and finally the textile sector. The audience of the event was international, therefore it was held in English, however the presentations remained in greek.

The main focus of the event were the results and findings of the CLEANTEX project and its contribution to circular economy, the research conducted and the activities that were carried out throughout its duration.

Moreover and due to the topic that was being discussed, the multiplier event included speeches from respective to circularity, textile industry and sustainability sectors, creating discussions about current activities in the local community.

The interest of the discussion heightened when the host partner presented the summer school in Ljubljana and the Handbook of CLEANTEX. Because of the interest to the latter, the Handbook of CLEANTEX was presented in detail with emphasis to the local community's activity in circularity in the textile sector. This discussion brought up a lot more information for the local community.

The event gathered generally positive reviews from the participants, and the discussions regarding the outcomes presented for CLEANTEX were very informative and fruitful.
